never favored more than a five-cent fare.

"Apparently the only thing left for Mr. Curran to do now." he said, "in order to attempt to justify his indorsement of the Miller higher fare plan is to try to show that I, at some time or another, favored a higher fare. This statement of Mr. Curran's is utterly false. No one knowing what has transpired in respect to traction in this city could believe it even for a moment unless he were feeble-minded.

"At no time since I became Mayor, or lefore it, have I favored a fare of more than five cents. Whitney's falschood that I did followed the failure of the late President Shonts of the Interborough to personally induce me to yield to their demands for a higher fare. Mr. Shonts celled on me at the City Hall in 1918 without my knowing that he was coming and without invitation from me. I had previously heard that Mr. Shonts had said soon after I was elected Mayor that 'in ebout a year we will have him (Hylan) thinking our way."

Says He Demanded Witness
"I had that in mind when he called, and told him bluntly that I would hold ne conversation with him without a witness present. There was a witness in the room at the time I told Mr. Shonts this, and I knew he was piqued at my lack of confidence in his integrity. He remained in my office, however, and continued his plea for a ligher fare in the presence of this witness. He came to my office at another time, and again I had a witness present.

"During all the time that Mr. Shonts "During all the time that Mr. Shonts was trying to induce me, by coming to my office, to yield to his persuasions for a higher fare the company was actually considering my removal from the office of Mayor. They had so little faith apparently in the success of Mr. Shonta's efforts to win me, that they subsequently searched the law books for ground for my removal. There has recently come into my possession the questions submitted by James L. Quackenbush, general manager to the Interborough, to the lawyers on the Interborough staff and to their outside lawyers to accomplish this end."

Lockwood Asks Craig to Answer School Charges

Juotes Demand of Somers, of Board of Education, That Senator Charles C. Lockwood, Republican coalition candidate for Comptroller, speaking last night in Mettinger's Hull, Long Island City, on the school question, quoted Arthur Somers, one of the most prominent members of John H. McCooey's Democratic organization in Brocklyn, a member of the Board of Education during several administrations, as saying: overnor Ous! Comptroller

"I believe it is the duty of the board, as representative of the people of the city, to apply to the Governor of the state and ask for the removal of Comptroller Craig."

Hylan Budget Reduction All Fake, Says Browne

Stewart Browne, president of the United Real Estate Owners' Association of New York in a statement issued last night, denounced the tentative city budget recently announced as aroviding for practically no increase in city government departments, and as a feke and a sham. Mr. Brown said:

"Within the last few days a statement has been made that the framers of this proposed budget had succeeded in cutting down the budget totals by $3,500,000, thus conveying the impression that they were saving the impression that they were saving the taxpayers that amount of money.

"An examination of this proposed budget shows that they have actually increased the personal service expenditures of every large department in a total of over $2,000,000 and the fake reduction in the proposed budget of $3,500,000 by the following illegal deduction in the proposed budget of $3,500,000 by the following illegal deductions:

"From the New York City Employees retirement fund, $1,168,515.

"From the Police Pension Fund, $1,499,152.

"From the Teachers' Endowment Fund, $1,752,749.

Fund, $1,752,749.

"From payments to charitable institutions, $994,950.

"These deductions give a total of $5,415,365. What I want to direct public attention to is that the City of New York will have these deducted sams to pay. Actually there is no reduction as claimed, and the fact about this proposed budget is that it is a take."

Justice Squiers Under Knife Justice Arnon L. Squiers, of the Supreme Court, was operated on for appendicitis last night at St. John's Hospital, Brooklyn. Early this morning he was reported to be in satisfactory condition and apparently certain of a rapid convalescence. The peration was performed by Dr. Harry R. Tarbox, of 1178 Dean Avenue, the Squiers' family physician.
